Proxy and remote voting are also available to the shareholders (by means of this attendance card or remote communication methods) as indicated by Law, the Bylaws, the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, the notice of the call to the General Meeting, as well as in the Shareholders' Guide and at the Company's website (www.amrest.eu), and in accordance with the two following sections.

In case the following sections of delegation and voting are signed, remote voting will prevail over proxies, which will be rendered without effect.

PROXY REPRESENTATION

Any shareholder who does not wish to attend the General Meeting may confer its representation to any other person via proxy. The representative must also sign this proxy.

The holder of the shares included in this attendance card hereby confers its representation to:

(Mark only one of the following boxes and, if applicable, specify the representative. This proxy will only be valid if the shareholder signs in the appropriate place)

- 1 The Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in case of absence, of the General Shareholders' Meeting
- 2 Mr/Ms..... with ID No.....

Any proxy that does not expressly specify the person to whom it has been granted shall be deemed to have been granted, indistinctly, jointly and severally and successively, in favour of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, as the case may be, in favour of the person chairing the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Vice Chairman, the Secretary or the Vice Secretary of the Board of Directors. The same applies in cases no box of the proxy has been marked.

To confer voting instructions, mark the corresponding box in the table below with a cross.

If any of the boxes below are not marked, precise voting instructions are given in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Agenda attached below.

For the purposes of Articles 523 and 526 of the Spanish Companies Law, it is hereby made known that (i) the directors Ms. Romana Sadurska and Mr. Emilio Fullaondo Botella are in a situation of conflict of interest in relation to items 5.1 and 5.2 of the Agenda, each of them with respect to the specific item in which their re-election as director is proposed; and (ii) the Chairman and all other Company directors are in a conflict of interest with respect to items eighth of the Agenda. All members of the Board of Directors may have a conflict of interest in relation to situations set forth in sections a), b), c) or d) of Article 526.1 of the Spanish Companies Act (appointment, re-election or ratification of directors; replacement, removal or dismissal of directors; filing of a derivative action; and approval or ratification of the Company's operations with a particular director), which may be presented outside the Agenda under the said Act. If the grantor has not given precise voting instructions with respect to any of the above points, unless expressly stipulated otherwise below, the proxy shall be deemed to have been granted indistinctly, jointly and severally and successively, in favour of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, as the case may be, in favour of the person chairing the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Vice Chairman, the Secretary or the Vice Secretary of the Board of Directors. Mark the following box "NO" only if you do not authorise the alternate proxy (in this case the shareholder shall be deemed to have instructed the representative to abstain):
