

Raimondo Eggink is a member of the supervisory boards of the following public and private companies:

PKP Cargo S.A. (since 2015), Suwary S.A. (since 2015), Górnośląskie Przedsiębiorstwo Wodociągów S.A. (since 2015), LW „Bogdanka” S.A. (since 2012), AmRest Holdings SE (since 2010), ZEW KOGENERACJA S.A. (since 2009) and PERŁA – Browary Lubelskie S.A. (2004-2005 and since 2008).

Previously he sat on the boards of: Stomil-Olsztyn S.A. (2002-2003), Giełda Papierów Wartościowych w Warszawie S.A. (2002-2008), Wilbo S.A. (2003-2005), Mostostal Płock S.A. (2003-2006), Swarzędz Meble S.A. (2004-2005), PKN ORLEN S.A. (2004-2008), KOFOLA S.A. (2004-2012, formerly HOOP S.A.), Zachodni Fundusz Inwestycyjny NFI S.A. (2006), FO Dębica S.A. (2008-2012) and Netia S.A. (2006-2014). Raimondo Eggink occasionally renders consulting and training services to financial services companies.

Before that Raimondo Eggink was a member of the management board, chief investment officer and general manager of the Polish division of ABN AMRO Asset Management, which managed the portfolios of institutional and high net worth individual investors. He started his career in 1995 in the Warsaw branch of ING Bank, where he contributed to the establishment of the first asset management company on the Polish market.

Raimondo Eggink obtained a Polish license for investment advisor in 1995 and a CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) charter in 2000. He holds a PhD degree in theoretical mathematics from the Jagiellonian University in Cracow.