2.3. Supply Chain

In the first half of 2009 the consumer price index in Europe significantly exceeded inflation rate mainly as a result of an increase in the food prices. Despite this unfavorable situation, AmRest managed to keep food prices on the fixed level which was possible was enabled by:

- protection of foreign exchange rate risk for products imported in 2009
- decrease in cheese and food oil
- improvement in effectiveness on the level of chicken production through introducing new technologies at main suppliers
- increase in value of food purchase in Poland for Czech, Hungarian, Bulgarian and Russian market combined with setting PLN fixed prices.

AmRest priorities for the second half of 2009 AmRest include effectiveness improvement in chicken production, optimization of the purchase process and development of food suppliers and producers network.

As at 31 August 2009 AmRest operated 433 restaurants total (420 as at 31 December 2008). In 2009 AmRest opened 23 restaurants and closed 13.

The closures resulted mainly from reorganization of the Pizza Hut brand in Poland and the conversion of Multi Brands (KFC and Pizza Hut operating in one location) into independent KFC and/or Pizza Hut restaurants. Additionally, as a result of Russian portfolio restructuring, one acquisition in Moscow was annuled and one unprofitable restaurants was closed and that caused reducing number of RostiksKFC restaurants in Russia by total of 5.

The most of restaurants opened in the period discussed above, are located in Poland (19) and also in Russia (3), in Czech Republic (2), in Hungary (1) and in Serbia (1). Restaurants opened in 2009 are 11 KFC restaurants, 6 Burger King restaurants, 3 Starbucks stores and 3 Pizza Hut restaurants.

4.3.Other information

On January 6th, in reference to the conversion of AmRest into European Company on September 19th 2008 (RB 71/2008 dated September 22nd 2008), AmRest informed about the transfer of the Company's registered office to Poland and the change of Company's Articles of Association. The wording of the up-to-date articles has been attached to the RB 1/2009 dated January 6th 2008. AmRest is the first public company in Poland which operates in the form of European Company. The aim to convert AmRest into European Company was to increase the efficiency of the Company, i.e. improve the AmRest's transparency and reduce operating and administrative costs (RB 1/2009 dated 6 January 2009).

On 24 March 2009 the contingent agreement for the sale of all shares in Sfinks Polska S.A. ("Sfinks") owned by AmRest was finalized (a total of 3 061 786 shares at PLN 9.95 per share). The Company's preliminary investment intentions in respect of Sfinks could not be realized as a result of the real valuation of the company based on the actual financial condition of Sfinks. The full assessment of the company's condition was possible after changes in the management bodies of Sfinks; the previous Management Board did not give its consent to a Due Diligence process due to the equal access of all investors to the data of companies quoted on the Warsaw Stock Exchange. The company's position was so difficult that to protect its assets and the shareholders' interests a motion for bankruptcy was filed with the possibility of a constructive arrangement. Despite the will to render the company more efficient, the implementation of the recovery plan prepared based on multi-year experience of AmRest proved impossible due to the shareholding structure. At the same time, in connection with the above, there was no basis for accepting the initial price of Sfinks's shares (in accordance with the law, the Sfinks share price at a subsequent call would not drop below PLN 19.41) as the key investment criterion of AmRest would not be met (a minimum of 20% IRR). The decision to withdraw from the investment in Sfinks took into consideration a partial return on the capital invested and allowing the other shareholders to improve the company's position. In the first quarter of 2009, a final impairment write-down was made accordingly to the transaction from 24 March 2009, the impairment amounted to 2 527 thousand. The Management Board of AmRest informed of the details in current and periodical reports published by the Company in 2008 and 2009.

On 8 April 2009 AmRest informed that the first Starbucks store was opened in Warsaw, Poland. Poland is the consecutive market where AmRest develops this brand. Currently AmRest operates a total of 11 Starbucks stores in Poland and Czech Republic (RB 20/2009).

On 22 May 2009, the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting of AmRest took place. Shareholders holding at least 5% of the total number of voting rights at the General Shareholders' Meeting were listed in RB 29/2009 dated 22 May 2009. The General Shareholders' Meeting did not forego any of the items on the agenda and passed resolutions relating to the approval of the Directors' Report on the activity of the Company and the AmRest Holdings SE capital group in the financial year 2008, the approval of the Company's Financial Statements and Consolidated Financial Statements for the financial year 2008, to set aside the Company's profit generated in the financial year 2008 as statutory reserve, On the release of liability for the exercise of their respective duties for the financial year 2008 of Members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board, On changing the composition of the Supervisory Board (point 2.1), On the approval of the resolution of the Management Board of AmRest Holdings SE of 11 December 2008 on the Adoption of the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) in respect of the financial year 2008. The contents of all the resolutions passed are included in the Appendix to RB 28/2008.

On 30 June 2009 AmRest informed about signing of annex to the Distribution Agreement ("Agreement"), dated 2 April 2003, concluded between AmRest Sp. z o.o. ("AmRest Poland") and McLane Polska Sp. z o.o., with its registered office at Błonie ("Distributor") on 30 June 2009. The Annex is coming into force after signing. Pursuant to this annex the term of the Agreement was extended for another 3 years, i.e. until 1 August 2013. Additionally both sides agreed that further extension of the term of the Agreement shall be concluded in writing by 1 December 2012, otherwise the Agreement would expire automatically on 1 August 2013. Besides the extension of the term of the Agreement, the annex concerns improvement of invoice flow between AmRest Poland and Distributor, change in charging distribution fee and includes new entity into the Agreement, AmRest Coffee Sp. z o.o. The objective of the above changes is to improve process of goods distribution to AmRest Poland restaurants and optimize delivery costs (RB 32/2009).

On 8 July 2009 roku AmRest was informed by Grove Ownership Holding LLC about willingness to realize sell option for remaining 20 % shares of AppleGrove Holdings LLC. Transaction will be finalized by the end of third quarter.

The Management Board of AmRest, with reference to regulatory announcements 20/2007 dated 21 May 2007 and 35/2007 dated 3 July 2007, informs that the acquisition of OOO Pizza Nord (currently OOO AmRest Russia) has been finally settled between Michael Tseytin ("Seller") and AmRest. As a result of the settlement the Seller signed a one year Promissory Note under which he is obliged to pay a principal of USD 9.0 million to AmRest. The Promissory Note is secured by Share Pledge Agreement. The financial terms of Promissory Note do not differ from standard terms used in a given type of the agreement. Additionally, as a part of the settlement, a call option under which Micheal Tseytin had a right to acquire one of the key RostiksKFC locations in St. Petersburg was cancelled (RB 37/2009).

5. Planned investment activities and assessment of their feasibility

AmRest plan is to continue to expand its business through a combination of organic growth in Central and Eastern Europe and M&As, both in the US and CEE. AmRest's goal in Central and Eastern Europe is to further develop the basic Group brands, KFC and Pizza Hut, by opening new restaurants and increasing sales in the existing ones; developing new brands – Burger King and Starbucks – and engaging in regional expansion by entering new markets in the region. The growth strategy on the American market stipulates further acquisitions under the Applebee's brand.

AmRest maintains a high rate of growth and opens several restaurants a year in Central and Eastern Europe. In 2009, the Company will continue its development and is planning to open ca. 50 restaurants in the region. Most of the openings planned for the current year relate to proven concepts (KFC and Pizza Hut) and basic markets (Poland and the Czech Republic). The Company intends to finance all openings in Europe with its own funds – positive cash flows generated internally by the existing AmRest restaurants. The plan of new openings will be adapted to market conditions and possibilities of acquiring new attractive locations in particular countries on a current basis. In 2009 AmRest will be very restrictive and selective each time in taking decisions on allocating its cash flows – the aim is to achieve at least a 20% IRR on each investment. The average cost of opening a new AmRest restaurant in Central and Eastern Europe varies on the location and type of restaurant and averages PLN 2.3 million.

The AmRest Group intends to spend a significant part of the capital expenditure in 2009 on new IT systems and integration of the systems currently possessed. The key projects will relate to implementing a new sales POS (Point of Sale) system, an ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) system and a central reporting BI (Business Intelligence) system. The purpose of the new IT systems is to standardize the systems in all countries and achieve greater automation of business processes. These changes increase the productivity and effectiveness of work in the whole group and enhance the efficiency of business controlling and monitoring. The integration and improvement of the IT systems will form the basis for the further expansion and growth of AmRest.

The Management Board expects the long-term development to be financed mainly with own funds and additional external finance. The Company does not rule out the possibility of increasing its borrowings over the next few months – if an attractive acquisition option appears (organic development in 2009 in Europe will be financed exclusively with its own funds). In the opinion of the Management Board, the safe level of debt is a Net Debt/EBITDA ratio not exceeding 3.5 (as at the end of June 2009 the ratio amounted to: 2.2 Net Debt/EBITDA).

6. External and internal factors material for the development of the Company in 2009

In the opinion of the Management Board of AmRest, factors which have a significant impact on the future development of the Company and its future results comprise:

a) External factors

- competitiveness – in terms of price, quality of service, location and quality of food;
- demographic changes, trends in respect of the number of people suing the restaurants and the type and number, as well as location of competitors' restaurants;
- changes in law and regulations with a direct impact on the operation of restaurants and the people employed there;
- change in costs of rental of the real estate and related costs;
- change in prices of foodstuffs used to prepare meals and change in prices of packaging materials;
- changes in the overall economic condition of Poland, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Bulgaria, Russia, Serbia and the United States, and consumer confidence, amount of disposable income and individual methods of spending money.
- ability to acquire financing;
- abrupt changes on the foreign currency markets.

b) Internal factors

- acquiring and preparing human resources necessary to develop the existing and new restaurant networks;
- acquiring attractive locations;
- effective implementation of new restaurant networks and products;
- building an integrated IT system.

7. Basic risks and threats to which the Company is exposed

The Management Board of AmRest is responsible for the risk management system and internal control system as well as for the system of reviewing those systems in terms of their operating effectiveness. The systems help in the identification and management of risks which could prevent AmRest from realizing its long-term goals. Nevertheless, the existence of the systems does not allow for the total elimination of the risk of fraud and illicit actions. The Management Board of AmRest reviewed, analyzed and ranked the risks to which the Company is exposed. The current basic risks and threats have been summarized in this section. AmRest reviews and enhances its risk management systems and internal control systems on a current basis.

a) Factors outside the Company's control

The risk is related to the impacts of factors outside the Company's control on AmRest's development strategy which bases on opening new restaurants. The factors include: possibilities of finding and ensuring available and appropriate restaurant locations, possibilities of obtaining the permits required by the relevant authorities on time, the possibility of delays in opening new restaurants.

b) Dependence on the franchiser

AmRest manages KFC, Pizza Hut, Burger King and Applebee's restaurants as a franchisee, therefore, many factors and decisions in the course of the operations run by AmRest depends on restrictions or specifications enforced by the franchisers or on their consent.

The term of the franchise agreements relating to KFC, Pizza Hut and Burger King is 10 years. AmRest is entitled to an option to extend this period by a further 10 years, on condition that it meets the terms and conditions concluded in franchise agreements and other requirements, including making an appropriate payment in respect of the extension of the term of the agreement. The term of the franchise agreements relating to the Applebee's brand is 20 years, with an option for extending it by a further 20 years – on similar conditions as the remaining AmRest brands.

Irrespective of meeting the above terms and conditions, there is no guarantee that after the end of the term the franchise agreement will be extended for a further period. In respect of KFC and Pizza Hut restaurants, the first period began in 2000, in respect of Burger King restaurants, the first period began in 2007 with the opening of the first restaurant of the brand. In respect of some of Applebee's restaurants, the first period began in 2000. In respect of the remaining Applebee's restaurants, the first period began in 2008.

c) Dependency on joint venture partners

AmRest will open Starbucks restaurants by establishing Joint Venture Companies in Poland, the Czech Republic and Hungary on partnership terms, under joint venture agreements. Therefore, some decisions under jointly run operations will depend on partners' consent.

The JV Agreements with Starbucks were concluded for a period of 15 years, with an option to extend them for a further 5 years after meeting specific terms and conditions. In the event that AmRest does not meet the obligation relating to opening and running a minimum number of stores, Starbucks Coffee International, Inc. will have a right to increase its share in the Joint Venture Companies by repurchasing shares of AmRest Polska at a price agreed by the parties on the basis of a valuation of the Joint Venture Companies.

d) Lack of exclusivity

Franchise agreements relating to operating KFC, Pizza Hut, Burger King and Applebee's restaurants do not include provisions on awarding AmRest any exclusivity clauses on a given territory, protection or any other rights on the premises, area, or market surrounding AmRest restaurants. In practice, however, in connection with the scale of operations of AmRest (among other things, an extensive distribution network), the possibility of a competitive operator appearing (in respect of the brands currently operated by the Company), which could effectively compete with AmRest Group restaurants is relatively limited.

In respect of Starbucks, joint venture companies will be the only entities entitled to develop and run Starbucks stores in Poland, the Czech Republic and Hungary, without exclusivity rights to some of the institutional locations.

e) Rental agreements and their extension

Almost all AmRest restaurants operate in rented facilities. Most of the rental agreements are long-term, and usually they are concluded for a period of at least 10 years of the date of inception of the rental (on condition that all extension options are exercised, on specified terms and conditions, and without accounting for agreements which are periodically renewed, if they are not terminated on notice, and agreements for an unspecified period). Many rental agreements grant AmRest the right to extend the term of the agreement on condition that the Company abides by the terms and conditions of the rentals. Irrespective of the need to meet the terms and conditions, there is no guarantee that AmRest will be able to extend the periods of the rental agreements on terms and conditions satisfactory from the point of view of commercial practices. If there is no such possibility, the potential loss of significant restaurant locations may have an unfavourable impact on the operating results of AmRest and on its activities.

Moreover, in some circumstances, AmRest may take the decision to close a given restaurant and the termination of the respective rental agreement on cost-effective terms may prove impossible. Such situation may also have a negative impact on the Company's operations and operating results. Closing any restaurant depends on the consent of the franchiser, and it is uncertain whether such consent would be obtained.

In respect of Russian restaurants acquired by AmRest in July 2007, the average rental period is relatively shorter compared with AmRest restaurants in other countries. This results from the specific nature of the market.

f) Risk related to consumption of food products

Consumer preferences may change in connection with doubts arising as to the nutritional value of chicken, which are the main component of the KFC menu, or as a result of unfavourable information proliferated by mass media relating to the quality of products, diseases caused by them and damage incurred as a result of using AmRest restaurants and restaurants of other franchisees of KFC, Pizza Hut, Burger King, Starbucks and Applebee's, and as a result of disclosing unfavourable data by the government or a given market sector relating to products served in AmRest restaurants and at other KFC, Pizza Hut, Burger King, Starbucks and Applebee's franchisees', health issues and issues relating to the manner of functioning of one or a larger number of restaurants operated by AmRest, and its competitors. The risk referred to above is limited by using the highest quality components in AmRest restaurants – from checked and renowned suppliers, abiding by stringent quality and hygiene standards and applying state of the art equipment and processes enabling the total safety of the food.

g) Risk related to restrictions imposed by the lenders

In accordance with the loan agreements concluded with banks under the "Club Deal", the AmRest Group committed itself to abiding by certain restrictions in respect of drawing loans and borrowings, incurring capital expenditure, granting security and disposing of assets, as well as to maintaining specific values of financial ratios. It is possible that accepting the said commitments may significantly limit AmRest's operations in the future, and potentially refraining from meeting the commitments may lead to the need for early repayment of loan tranches drawn which in turn may have a negative impact on the financial condition and results of AmRest.

h) Risk related to the development of new brands

In January 2008 AmRest Coffee opened the first Starbucks store in the Czech Republic. Moreover, since the 3rd quarter of 2008 the Company has been consolidating the results of its Applebee's restaurants. As these are completely new concepts for AmRest there is a risk related to demand for the products offered and their acceptance by consumers.

i) Risk related to opening restaurants in new countries

Openings or acquisitions of restaurants operating on a new geographical and political territory are connected with a risk of different consumer preferences, risk of lack of good knowledge of the market, risk of legal restrictions resulting from local regulations and the political risk in these countries.

j) Foreign exchange risk

AmRest results are prone to currency risk related to transactions in currencies other than the currency in which the business operations are measured in particular Group companies.

The weakening of currencies in Central and Eastern Europe vs. EUR and USD which in the short term may impact the cost structure of the Company. Despite having hedged most foreign exchange exposures related to supplying raw materials in 2009, the Company is still exposed to foreign exchange risk related to a portion of the existing rental agreements denominated in EUR and USD.

k) Risk of increased financial costs

In 2008, the Company significantly increased its external debt. The increased financial costs resulting from servicing debt may lead to pressures on the net profit margin.

l) Risk of slowdown in the economies

The slowdown in the economies of Central and Eastern Europe and the United States of America may have an impact on disposable income in those markets which, in turn, may impact the results of AmRest restaurants operating in those markets.

m) Risk of seasonality of sales

The seasonality of sales and inventories of the AmRest Group is not significant which is typical for the whole restaurant industry. On Central and East European markets restaurants have lower sales in the first half of the year which is mainly the result of a smaller number of days of sale in February and lower number of customers in the restaurants. In the second half of the year, restaurants generate higher sales revenues in connection with increased tourist activity in the third quarter of the year and – traditionally – a higher number of customer visits in autumn. Additionally, in the last months of the year, the Christmas season is clearly visible and restaurants located in shopping centres generate exceptionally good results. The United States market is characterized by an opposite relation. After a period of lower sales in the summer months and a slight revival related to the holiday season, the first half of the year is a period of increased activity in connection with the use of holiday vouchers, promotional coupons and a high number of holidays.

n) Risk of change in consumers' preferences

A potential risk which could have an unfavourable impact on the sales is a change in the consumers' preferences in connection with doubts as to the health values of the chicken which is the key product of the KFC chain. This may be caused by unfavourable information relating to chicken consumption and diseases transmitted by poultry proliferated by mass media. The risk referred to above is limited by using the highest quality components in AmRest restaurants – from checked and renowned suppliers, abiding by stringent quality and hygiene standards and applying state of the art equipment and processes enabling total safety of the food.

o) Risk related to implementing new IT systems

Costs related to implementing new IT systems may in the short term have a negative impact on the Company's results. However, in the long term, the expected benefits will have a negative impact on the Group's profitability.

8. The Company's development directions and strategy

AmRest's strategy is to achieve market dominance* through acquisitions & operating scalable ($50+m in annual sales), highly profitable (20%+IRR) branded QSR & CD restaurants concepts. AmRest, through its "Wszystko Jest Możliwe!" culture delivers craveable taste and exceptional service at affordable prices.

* Dominance defined as clear sales leader in the country.

a) Central and Eastern Europe

AmRest assesses that in respect of the brands currently operated by the Company in Central and Eastern Europe, the current market potential on the markets on which it operates is many times higher than the currently held restaurant portfolio. Therefore, the Company plans to significantly accelerate its growth. Until the end of 2009 AmRest plans to increase its sales revenues in Central and Eastern Europe threefold (compared with 2006). AmRest will realize its strategy in Central and Eastern Europe by continuing development of the existing brands in the countries in which it is present, increasing sales of existing restaurants, introducing new brands and further acquisitions in the region.

In the following years, in Central and Eastern Europe, AmRest plans to grow at a rate of ca. 20% per annum in terms of sales revenues. The planned increase in the pace of growth and significantly increased number of new restaurants will have a short-term pressure on the net profit margin, related to increased financial costs (costs related to servicing debt) and increased one-off costs of opening new restaurants. A material pillar of the Group's development will also be the integration and improvement of IT systems.

The Company intends to consistently continue actions aimed at increasing their customer value. By further excelling in customer service, offering tasty dishes prepared with fresh components and introducing new products AmRest intends to increase clients' awareness of the excellent value-for-money of the services.

b) The United States

The acquisition of shares in AppleGrove which operates 104 Applebee's restaurants in the United States of America means the entry of AmRest on the largest global restaurant market and a significant strengthening of its Casual Dining Restaurants segment.

The growth strategy on the American market stipulates acquisitions and consolidations under the Applebee's brand. Our purpose is further use of the wide experience of the management of AppleGrove in consolidating Applebee's business and using the potential of the Applebee's brand – the largest casual dining chain in the world.
